DEATH OF THE "WELSH FASTING GIRL."-The London papers announce the tragical end of a strange imposture. More than two years ago a girl of eleven years, named Sarah Jacobs, ing blood, and never afterwards left it, except when she was lifted out. It was soon announced that she took neither food nor driph thousands came to see what was popularly regar ad as little short of a miracle. The child was exhibited lying in her bed dressed as a bride, and with a wreath of flowers around her head. The parents derived quite a little revenue from the offerings of sympathetic visitors. They declared that she took no sustenance whatever. Once a fortnight her lips were moistened with water.

dreadful end?

Several investigations were made at various picious was discovered. It seems, however, that no examination was made of the bed, until a short time ago four experienced nurses were sent down from Guy's Hospital to sift the case, in concert with a local committee and &c. Strict attention paid to the sale of COUNseveral men. The room and bed were minutely searched, and on the 9th of December the nurses began their watch. No food was discovered, and it was made morally impossible that any should be secretly introduced. So far the investigation may be called a complete success, but after some days the girl began to show symptoms of starvation. The parents were urged to give her food, but refused. On the 17th she died, delirious. The cruelty of the parents, who, if the story be correctly told; subjected their child for two long years to the torturs of this living death, and finally caused her death in the agonies of starvation, is justly the subject of severe reprobation. But is nothing to be said of the Guy's Hospital authorities and the "local committee" who permitted the cruel test to be carried out to the

RITUALISM IN NEW YORK .- The festival of the Reedemer's Circumcision was celebrated on New Year's day, at St. Alban's Episcopal Church, New York, by what is called, in the language of the ritualists, a "high celebration." The church was hung through its entire length with rich festoons of the choicest evergreens, and the sanctuary a blaze with golden light, two candelebra at either side of the altar making two beautiful conical pillars of starlike constellations. A banner of rich white flowered satin and gold, on which was an exquisite painting of the "Holy Family," after the style of Ra-phael was suspended at the right side of the sanctuary, while on the left was another equally valuable banner, on which was wrought in gold, a chalice, surmounted by the host emitting a flood of haloed rays. At eight in the morning the extra service commenced by a procession of a colytes and priests, which having drawn up around the altar, what was to all appearance a Roman Catholie mass was sung and chanted, the Rev. Dr. Morrell acting as high celebrant, and the Rev. Mr. Noyes as deacon. A clergyman recently suspended in Massachusetts for ritualstic practices acted as sub deason. The congregation was large and highly respectable, and was evidently composed of people of a devotional turn of this Bark will be hell at the Banking House of mind, nearly one hundred persons having on TUESHAY, the little Banking House on TUESHAY, the little reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial hap Indeed, without these the journey piness. through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with your own.

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discov ery deters him from applying to those, wi from education and respectability, can alon befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs. from January. 1865, to December, 1869, and of Blackwood's Magazine from January, 1866, to bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity till at last the palate of the mouth or the one of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commissers tion, till death puts a period to his dreadful sulferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns."

It is a MELANCHOLY FACT that thou new type, and arrangements have been made sands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that DEADLY POISON, MYR. CURY, ruin the constitution and make the
